

My block is a log cabin which represents the homes from which the children were removed. The centre portrays the broken hearts of both parents and children.

Brenda Higgins